Election/R striction

Claims 16-21 remain withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 1-7, 9, 11-15 and 22-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Treyz (US 6,587,835) in view of Pantel (US 5,969,968). Treyz discloses a method wherein a hand held mobile computing device is used in close proximity to a retail unit (Fig. 16) through a direct wireless link such that the mobile computing device communicates with the retail unit to receive a listing from the retail unit and then transmits a purchase request (column 3, lines 16-48). The purchase request may generate a conformation ("notification" column 3, line 44) and the user will pick up the item(s). Treyz further discloses securely paying for the item(s) using the mobile computing device (column 1, lined 59-65). Inherently, the link must be established automatically or by the user. The mobile computing device may be a handheld computer or mobile phone (column 9, lines 59-60). Treyz discloses the device to be used in a drive-up restaurant but does not specifically disclose a link automatically established with drive-up restaurant. Pantel discloses a wireless link automatically established between drive-up restaurant and a mobile computing device for ordering desired food items. At the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to use apply the device in Treyz for drive-up food ordering as disclosed in Pantel to increase the utility of the device. The voice recognition and the various ways of making the payment are well known in the art.

Art Unit: 3679

Once the combination was made, the device would receive a listing of menu items since the Treyz discloses the wireless device to receive product information (column 1, line 48-49) which when used in combination with a drive-up restaurant the product information equates to menu items which would be inclusive of the "financial transaction". In other words, a "financial transaction" would not preclude the listing of menu items since such items would have to be known for any "financial transaction" to take place. Further, the purchasing would be of a food item and the conformation would also be of a food item when used in combination with a drive-up restaurant.

Conclusion

Applicant's arguments have been fully reviewed and consideration thereto has been given in the above rejection. As such, no further response is believed necessary. It should be noted that the new rejection above was as a result of the amendment.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

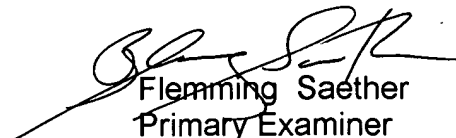

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
